Subaru Corporation today announced that it will exhibit at the 45th Tokyo Motor Show 2017 (Press Days: October 25-26; General Admission: October 27- November 5), with the concept of “New SUBARU Story - From a company making things, to a company making people smile.” Through the vehicles on display and its entire booth, Subaru will showcase the embodiment and future vision of the Subaru distinctive value of “Enjoyment and Peace of mind”, and provide visitors with an experience that will bring smiles to their faces.

A number of concept cars will be exhibited, with Subaru VIZIV Performance Concept<sup>*1</sup> taking center stage. The model expresses the enjoyment of driving by adopting a sports sedan style based on Subaru’s shared design philosophy of “DYNAMIC x SOLID”, while realizing its future vision for safety with advanced driver-assist technology, centered on Subaru’s original EyeSight driver-assist system. Subaru will also premier new retail models, and exhibit the models that will race in the Super GT series.

The new retail models that will premiere at the show are the S208 (only 450 units available, sale by lottery), based on the WRX STI, and the SUBARU BRZ STI Sport (Cool Grey Khaki edition only limited to 100 units, sale by lottery). With the display of these two models, the company will promote Subaru’s distinctive “enjoyment” of driving, and continue the enhancement of the STI<sup>*2</sup> brand outlined in the product strategy in its mid-term management vision.

Subaru President Yasuyuki Yoshinaga will hold a press conference Wednesday, October 25 from 11:15 at the Subaru booth (East Hall). Video of the press conference will be posted on <https://www.youtube.com/user/SUBARUOnTube>.

A special site (<https://www.subaru.jp/tms/>) will be set up on the Subaru official website, where information about the Subaru booth will be posted.
